JOBST® Code Finder

Web app for ordering information

Find JOBST Ready-to-Wear order codes and prescribing information fast

JOBST Code Finder for healthcare professionals is a web-based application that is optimised to work on your mobile device.

- Browse the extensive JOBST Ready-to-Wear compression garment range
- Easily find the product ordering information you need
- Instantly see if the JOBST garment is available on prescription
- Get a summary of the order code details
- Copy to an email or document and use the description to help find the JOBST garment in the electronic prescribing systems

Pressure damage from poorly fitting compression garments can lead to pain, discomfort and non-concordance¹. Size Finder function in JOBST Code Finder supports you in finding the best fit for your patient. Enter your patient's measurements to see where they fall within the selected JOBST Ready-to-Wear product measuring guide and, alongside your clinical judgement, determine the size required.

Access JOBST Ready-to-Wear product information and measuring guides all in one place. When you find the information you need, copy to an email to facilitate easier ordering or raising a prescription. No login required! Just access through your web browser and save the icon to your home screen for easy access next time you need to use. Visit <https://codefinder.jobst.com/> on your mobile device to get started today!

No more searching through a catalogue, use our web app to find the information you need
